Dear Judge Reznik:

The undersigned has been appointed to represent Ms. Doreen Mastroianni in the above-captioned matter. The defendant, Doreen Mastroianni, respectfully moves, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3145(a)(2), to amend the conditions of her release. Ms. Mastroianni seeks a modification of her travel restrictions to include the District of Connecticut, as this office's principal location is in Fairfield, Connecticut, for the purpose of attending meetings with counsel, with any travel occurring after providing notice and receiving the approval of the United States Pretrial Services Office.

United States Pretrial Services Officer Simon Krivoruk indicated to this office that Pretrial Services has no objection to Ms. Mastroianni's request. Assistant United States Attorney Margaret N. Vasu indicated that the government has no objection to the requested modification.

Defendant's request is GRANTED.

Ms. Mastroianni's travel restrictions are modified to permit her to travel to the District of Connecticut, with the advanced notification and approval of her United States Pretrial Services Officer, for the purpose of attending meetings with defense counsel.
